A NOTE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Dear Parents,

At all grades K-5 we are promoting safe, respectful and responsible behavior by explicitly teaching behavior expectations. This week students rotated to different locations in the building.

Whether it was the hallway, playground, bathroom, or cafeteria, students were specifically taught how to be safe, respectful, and responsible.

This year we are recognizing students' positive behavior with a wolf paw ticket. The tickets are added to the school-wide container and students work towards filling it to earn a celebration! Students that receive a ticket also receive an ink stamp on their hand so you will know at home when they have been caught doing the right thing! If you see a stamp on your child's hand, be sure to ask what behavior they were modeling.

It has been a smooth start to the new school year. We look forward to enjoying the positive atmosphere created by our staff and students as we learn and grow together.

Sincerely,
Karen Lockwood
